About the Family Tree

How do I find a person in the tree?

To find a person in the family tree, first use the Index. The Index lists the surnames, followed by 1) the given names, 2) the birth and death dates, 3) the page number of the entry in the family tree. Often, it is quicker to first look up a spouse's name in the Index.

The format of the "Indented Descendant Report" was generated using the genealogy program "Brothers Keeper" (www.brotherskeeper.com). The first page of the family tree starts with Jean Durand dit Lafortune. Each descendant has his/her descendants listed after their name. Each name is preceded by a number that is a modification of the Henry system used to identify descendants from a common ancestor. For example, 1315. Jean Baptiste Durand (the 24th person listed on page 161) is preceded by the number 1315. This number indicates that he is the fifth child listed under 131, Louis Durand. Louis is the third child listed under 1. Jean Durand dit Lafortune. Please note that the computer software does not necessarily place the children in birth order! Any numbers in parentheses indicate a number greater than 9 such as (11).

What are the criteria for inclusion in the Jean Durand family tree?

Descendants of Jean Durand dit Lafortune and Catherine Annennontak can be included that meet any of the following criteria:

- 1. Durand surname with a clear link to Jean Durand.
- 2. Children of a woman who was born with a Durand surname. For instance, Amy Durand married Thomas Dudley. Their daughter, Madeline, has the Dudley surname, so we will enter her into the database. However, we will not enter Madeline's children, unless she is a member of the Durand Heritage Foundation.
- 3. Durand Heritage foundation members, regardless of surname, if they can demonstrate a link to Jean Durand.

Where did the information come from?

The principle sources for the family tree were:

- Elden DuRand, Jean Durand dit LaFortune and his descendants, 1944
- Jean and Viateur Durand, Jean Durand dit LaFortune et sa Postérité, 1954
- Beatrice Durand Derrick, Durand, 1976
- Edmond Durand, Durand, A Family Genealogy, 1981
- Ron Eustice, The Perrons...French-Canadian Pioneers of Minnesota, 1990
- Philip Denomme, Our French Canadian Ancestry in Huron County, T.W. Denomme, 1990
- Leila Parkos, Thibodeau Family Descendants, 1994

- Stu and Lillian Thibodeau, Rice County Families, Their History, Our Heritage, 1982
- Richard Durand, personal research
- Blanche Durand Hammer, former DHF contact for submitted database updates

Who entered the information?

Roger Durand and his children – Amy, Elizabeth, and David – began entering names in various computerized genealogy programs in the early 1990s. After the Durand Heritage Foundation was formed, Blanche Durand Hammer maintained the database for several years.

How is the family tree maintained?

Roger Durand currently maintains the database. Twice a year, in January and July, he converts the database files to a HTML report suitable for viewing on the web. He loads the updated file to the DHF website and maintains the links to the file.

How accurate is the information?

The initial entry of names by the Roger Durand family took the information directly from the sources shown above. Since then, the information comes directly by way of family members. While the database would not qualify as a "research document" (because it does not list the "proofs" of the information, such as actual references to court or church documents), the information and linkages provide a purist with a starting point for research.

Why don't you have me or my family listed? My last name is Durand!

You may not be a direct descendant of Jean Durand dit Lafortune. There are many Durands who do not descend from Jean Durand. If you do descend from Jean Durand, then you need to do the work to find the linkage to the family tree. The best way to do this is to work with marriage, birth, and death documents in the church and government agencies where these events occurred. DHF does not have a staff to do this work for you. Start with your own or your parents' documents, and work up your family tree until you can link with someone in the Jean Durand family tree. When you have the link, submit the additions as outlined below.

Why do you have just birth, death, and marriage events and places?

From the start, we have tried to make the entries simple yet inclusive. The software and hardware available in the early '90s accommodated just the basic events that we recorded. While current software and hardware would allow additional information, we have elected not to include this additional information in our database.

How can I submit changes, additions, and deletions?

Visit the Durand Heritage Foundation website at www.durandfoundation.com. Contact information is found under the link, "Family Tree."
